Greetings from 5-B!

Linked to: Student's Book pp. 44–45 – the digital story about a new timetable (school subjects, days and times)

BEFORE YOU READ What time does your school start? Which day is your favourite school day? Why?

From: Ada Aksoy
To: Ozan Er, Mira Wagner
Subject: Greetings from snowy Erzurum!

Hi Ozan and Mira,

Greetings from Erzurum! It's a big city in the east of Türkiye, and it's very cold. Today it's minus twelve degrees! Mum is here for two weeks. She films foxes in the snowy mountains near the city for her new documentary. Dad is on holiday, so we are with her. Nil and Grandpa are at home with Fıstık.

And guess what? For one week, I'm a guest student at Kardelen Lower Secondary School! Our two schools say it's OK. Every morning, Dad takes me to school. There is a big snowman in the school garden!

I'm in class 5-B. There are twenty-eight students in 5-B – twenty-nine with me! My desk mate is Zehra. She is very careful, and her desk is always tidy. Today I can't find my rubber, so she lends me hers. Aras sits behind us. He is very funny, and he loves horses.

The classroom is like 5-A. There is a smart board, a bookcase and a rubbish bin. From my seat, I can see Palandöken Mountain.

The timetable is different. In 5-A, our first lesson starts at half past eight. Here, it starts at ten to nine. On Mondays, there is double Maths – Ozan, you love that! On Wednesdays, there is P.E. at one o'clock. We play basketball in the sports hall, because the garden is full of snow!

Fun fact: the clocks in Antalya and Erzurum show the same time, but the sun comes up earlier here in the east!

Write soon! Love, Ada

Cirit: A Sport on Horseback

Linked to: Student's Book p. 52 – interesting school activities in different countries, with traditional sports like horseback javelin and wrestling (Time to Learn More)

BEFORE YOU READ Do you know any traditional sports in Türkiye? Which sports can people do on a horse?

> Ada's project for 5-A · Ms Arslan's English class
> Topic: An interesting sport from another city

Hello, 5-A! As you know, I'm in Erzurum with Mum and Dad. My new friend Aras talks about cirit every day. Every Saturday, he goes to a cirit club with his uncle, Oğuz. This Saturday, Dad and I go with them. Dad takes lots of photos. Here are my project notes.

WHAT IS CIRIT? Cirit is a traditional Turkish sport, and it is very old. People play it on horseback. In our English book, its name is horseback javelin. Erzurum is famous for cirit, but people play it in some other cities in Türkiye, too.

HOW DO YOU PLAY IT? There are two teams on a big field. The riders have wooden sticks. A stick is called a "cirit", too, and it isn't sharp. A rider rides fast towards the other team and throws a stick at a rider from that team. That rider moves away quickly or catches the stick in the air! There is one very important rule: players mustn't hit the horses.

AT THE CLUB: Uncle Oğuz's horse is Rüzgâr. His name means "wind" in English, and he is very fast! Rüzgâr eats an apple from my hand. Aras has horseback riding lessons every Saturday at ten o'clock. He wants to be a cirit player one day.

MORE OLD SPORTS: Cirit, horseback riding and wrestling are old Turkish sports. Oil wrestling is famous in Edirne. What about you, 5-A? Is there a traditional sport in your family's city?
