Adverbs of frequency

Put the adverb before the main verb (Ada always wears a headband) but after am / is / are (Fıstık is always hungry).

Adverb	How often?	Example
always	every time	Mum always takes her camera to work.
usually	most of the time	Ada usually walks Fıstık after school.
often	many times	Dad often cooks for the family at the weekend.
sometimes	some of the time	Nil sometimes plays the guitar in the evening.
never	not at all	Fıstık never wears shoes!

Question tags

A positive sentence takes a negative tag. A negative sentence (or a sentence with never) takes a positive tag.

Sentence	Tag	Example
am / is / are …	isn't / aren't …?	It's warm today, isn't it?
isn't / aren't …	is / are …?	Pamukkale isn't snow, is it?
I / you / we / they + verb	don't …?	You like cotton T-shirts, don't you?
he / she / it + verb-s	doesn't …?	Dad tells bad jokes, doesn't he?
don't / doesn't / never + verb	do / does …?	Nil never gets up early, does she?
has got / have got	hasn't / haven't …?	Fıstık has got floppy ears, hasn't he?

Daily routines

Ada's week in Denizli during the April school break.

Routine	Example
get up	Ada usually gets up at eight in the holidays.
get dressed	She gets dressed quickly: jeans and a hoodie!
have breakfast	The family always has breakfast in Aunt Derya's garden.
brush your teeth	Ada brushes her teeth after breakfast.
go to work	Mum goes to work early. She films Pamukkale.
walk the dog	Ada and Selin walk Fıstık every afternoon.
have dinner	They have dinner at seven. Dad often cooks.
go to bed	Ada goes to bed at ten. She reads comics in bed.

Snow in April?

Linked to: Student's Book pp. 58–59 – the digital story: friends choose comfortable clothes for a game character (question tags)

BEFORE YOU READ What do you wear on a warm spring day? What do you wear in winter?

Ada's Comic Diary · Denizli · Day 1 of the April break

It's the April school break. Mum films Pamukkale for her documentary, so the Aksoys stay with Aunt Derya, Mum's sister, in Denizli. Today Dad and Fıstık stay at her house.

Nil That rooster next door sings at six every morning! I never get up early in the holidays!

Aunt Derya Denizli roosters are famous for their long songs, Nil. And your mum always starts work early, doesn't she?

Mum Yes, I do! Where's Ada?

Ada comes down in a thick wool scarf and gloves.

Nil Ada! Why the gloves? It's April!

Ada In Mum's photos, Pamukkale is white. It's snow, isn't it? Snow is cold!

Mum Oh, Ada! It isn't snow. It's spring, and it's warm and sunny today.

Nil Ha-ha! You look like a snowman!

Ada Hey! Don't make fun of people, Nil!

One hour later, at Pamukkale …

Ada Wow! It's so bright! White rock and little blue pools everywhere!

Aunt Derya Pamukkale means "cotton castle". It looks like a big castle of cotton, doesn't it?

Ada Yes! But it isn't cotton, is it?

Mum No. Warm water comes out of the hill, and over many years, it makes this white rock.

Aunt Derya Now take off your shoes and socks, everyone. Visitors always walk here with bare feet. Shoes can damage the rock.

Ada Ooh, the water is warm! But my hands are hot in these gloves.

Nil Bare feet and wool gloves. That's a new style, isn't it?

Ada OK. Let's sort out the problem!

Ada puts her scarf and gloves in her backpack.

Ada Now I'm ready! Film my feet, Mum!

Mum OK, five seconds. Smile, feet!

Let's check!

Old Clothes, New Style!

Linked to: Student's Book p. 64 – the fashion magazine "Style & You"

BEFORE YOU READ Have you got old clothes at home? What can you make with them?

STYLE & SMILE · a home-made kids' magazine by Ada and Selin · Issue 1

Hello, readers! I'm Ada. My cousin Selin is eleven and lives in Denizli. She loves fashion and usually draws new outfits in the evening. I always draw comics, so we are a great team!

Our big idea: a recycled fashion show! Aunt Derya often says, "Don't throw old clothes away!" So we make new clothes from old ones, and she helps us with her sewing machine. On Tuesday, we have the show in her garden. Dad is our audience. He claps and shouts "Bravo!"

SPRING – Selin wears Aunt Derya's old green raincoat. It's very loose, but a brown belt makes it stylish. Spring days are sometimes rainy, so she has got a yellow umbrella too.

SUMMER – Nil's white T-shirt is Dad's old one, with new yellow stars – Nil loves space! It's cotton, so it's great for hot days. Her sunglasses protect her eyes from the Sun.

AUTUMN – Our surprise model is Fıstık! His orange scarf is my old sock. He always wears his red collar, but now he has got an autumn look too. Very trendy!

WINTER – That's me in Aunt Derya's old red coat. It's very long, but it's warm. I also wear my wool scarf and my gloves from Pamukkale. They are useful now!

Top tips: Comfortable clothes are always the best. Look in your wardrobe before you go shopping. Never make fun of people's clothes – everyone has got a different style!

And the winner of the show? Fıstık, of course. He never takes off his scarf now!

See you in Issue 2! Ada & Selin

Lost at the Market

Linked to: Student's Book p. 65 – Writing: describe a person (physical appearance, clothes and routines)

BEFORE YOU READ Imagine you can't find your mum or dad at a busy market. What do you do?

Ada's Comic Diary · Denizli · Day 4

Today Dad and I go to the street market near Aunt Derya's house. Dad loves markets. He always buys fresh fruit and cheese, and he usually talks to every seller there. He wants cotton towels too, because Denizli is famous for its towels.

The market is very busy. There are colourful towels, scarves and socks everywhere. I stop at a stall with funny socks. They have got cats, dogs and pizzas on them! I look up and … Dad isn't there!

I go to a kind lady at a towel stall. "I can't find my dad," I say. "Don't worry," she says. "What does he look like?"

"He's tall. He has got short, straight brown hair and a big brown beard. His eyes are brown. He always wears a blue shirt and dark trousers."

The lady looks around. "Hmm. I can see three tall men with beards and blue shirts!" Oh no!

Then I have an idea. "My dad always tells really bad jokes!" Just then, we hear a loud voice from the cheese stall: "What do you call a bear with no socks? Bare-foot!" (Bear and bare sound the same. Terrible!)

"That's my dad!" I shout. There he is, with a big bag of cheese. "Ada! Are you lost?" "No, Dad. YOU are lost!" The towel lady laughs. "Your dad is easy to find, isn't he?"

Dad buys two towels from her to say thank you. Then we make a new rule: in markets, we always stay together!

Clothes from Around the World

Linked to: Student's Book p. 66 – CLIL & Culture: clothing from all around the world

BEFORE YOU READ Do you know any traditional clothes from Türkiye or from other countries?

English project for Ms Arslan · Ada Aksoy, 5-A, Begonvil Lower Secondary School

Our April break homework is a project about traditional clothes. Aunt Derya helps me. She designs towels for a textile company, so she knows a lot about fabrics!

Türkiye: Buldan cloth. On Friday, Aunt Derya, Selin and I visit Buldan, a small town in Denizli. Buldan is famous for its hand-woven cotton cloth. We watch a weaver at a wooden loom. People make shirts, scarves and towels from this soft, thin cloth.

Scotland: the kilt. A kilt is a knee-length skirt for men and boys. It is usually made of wool. It has a pattern of squares and lines called tartan. Many Scottish families have got their own tartan. People often wear kilts at weddings and festivals.

South Korea: the hanbok. A hanbok has got bright colours. For women, it has got a short jacket and a long, wide skirt. Some hanboks are made of silk. Koreans often wear a hanbok on special days like the New Year and at weddings.

Peru: the poncho. It is often cold in the Andes, the high mountains of Peru. Many people there wear a poncho: a big piece of thick fabric with a hole for your head. It is often made of alpaca or llama wool.

Where do fabrics come from? Cotton comes from a plant. Wool comes from animals like sheep. Silk comes from silkworms.

My favourite is the poncho. It's loose and comfortable, like a blanket with a hole! Fıstık loves Buldan cloth: he always sleeps on Aunt Derya's Buldan towel!

Let's check!
