BEFORE YOU READ Is every day the same in your family? What do your family members usually do in the morning?

Ada's Comic Diary · Our Week in Trabzon · Day 3

Dear Diary, today is a very unusual day! Every family member has a routine, but today is Swap Day! It's Uncle Hasan's idea: everybody is swapping hobbies and jobs for one day. It's a strange idea, isn't it?

Dad is a chef. He cooks every day at a hotel in Antalya. But today, Aunt Nazlı is cooking, and Dad is resting in the garden. “You're cooking hamsi, aren't you?” he asks. “No, I'm not. Hamsi comes from the sea. This is trout from our river!” Only Dad's jokes are the same: “Why do fish live in salt water? Because pepper makes them sneeze!”

Mum usually takes photos of wild animals. Today, Nil is using Mum's camera. It isn't hers, but that's OK! Mum is sitting on a bench and playing Nil's guitar. Nil is often grumpy in the morning, but today she's laughing. Mum's song is terrible, but she's having fun.

At home in Antalya, Grandpa Rıza works in his garden every morning. Now he wants to go cycling on Yusuf's bike. But the hill is too steep, so he's pushing the bike! Three cows are watching him. They're surprised, aren't they?

And me? I usually play football with Ozan. Today, I'm doing Grandpa's job: I'm watering Aunt Nazlı's flowers. Fıstık is helping me. Well, he's drinking the water!

Now it's evening. Everybody is tired but happy. Dad is asking, “Tomorrow is a normal day, isn't it?” Uncle Hasan is smiling. I think he has a new idea…
